ADVANCED PLACEMENT SCHOLAR AWARDS

Each year, the College Board sends us notification of students who performed exceptionally well on the end-of-year Advanced Placement exams.

There are three top honors: AP Scholar, AP Scholar with Honor, and AP Scholar with Distinction.

Students who achieved scores of 3 or higher on 3 or more AP exams earn the designation of AP Scholar. 28 Middlesex students, 5 of whom graduated in May, earned this distinction for 2016.

33 Middlesex students earned the distinction of AP Scholar with Honor by virtue of achieving an average score of 3.25 or higher on all AP exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on four or more AP exams. 21 of these students are still at Middlesex.

The State AP Scholar is granted to the one male and one female student in each U.S. state and the District of Columbia with scores of 3 or higher on the greatest number of AP Exams, and then the highest average score (at least 3.5) on all AP Exams taken. Middlesex had our first State AP Scholar winner last year.

By virtue of her extraordinary accomplishment, our State AP National Scholar is Alice Zhu.

ACADEMIC HONORS AWARDS

This assembly recognizes work accomplished during the spring semester last year.

There are 2 levels of “Honors” that Middlesex School bestows on a student for a semester’s work: For a scholastic average between 85 – 89.99, students are awarded “Honors.” The second level is "High Honors," for an average of 90 and above.
