The Boys' Junior Varsity Lacrosse assistant coach will be responsible for supporting the Junior Varsity head coach in all aspects of the Boys' Lacrosse program. Program-specific duties may include planning and running skill and tactical drills during practice, modeling the philosophies and values associated with the program, building positive relationships with a roster of roughly 20 boys from grades 9-12, and supporting with game-day management, both home and away, in a professional manner.

The team practices four times per week in the afternoon, generally from 3:30-5:30pm, and play games two times per week- usually on Wednesdays and Saturdays. The spring JV season runs from late-March to late-May, with a varying 6-day schedule and Sundays off.

Ideal candidates will have previous coaching experience and playing experience. The ability to coordinate, communicate, teach the game, and foster a positive and supportive team culture with a focus on player development and advancement is essential. They will also be organized, dependable, punctual, strong communicators, and actively maintain a positive environment that is appropriate and safe- physically, psychologically, and emotionally- for all involved.

This is a part-time seasonal position, and a competitive salary will be commensurate to qualifications and experience. It is important to note that all Middlesex employees in the 2022-23 school year will be required to submit proof of a full COVID vaccination, via Employee Navigator, prior to beginning their work on campus.
