Position Announcement
Middlesex School
Head Coach, Ultimate Frisbee
Spring Season, 2023

Middlesex School seeks a qualified head coach for a gender-inclusive Ultimate Frisbee team for the spring season of 2023. Middlesex is a gender-inclusive college-preparatory boarding secondary school of 400 students located in Concord, Massachusetts. For more information about Middlesex, please visit our website at: www.mxschool.edu

The Ultimate Frisbee head coach will be responsible for organizing, in conjunction with the Director of Athletics, all aspects of the Ultimate Frisbee team. Program-specific duties may include teaching the rules and basic concepts of the sport, planning and executing skill and tactical drills during practice, modeling the philosophies and values associated with the school, building positive relationships with a team of up to 20 students from grades 9-12, and supporting with game-day management, both home and away, in a professional manner.

The team will practice four to five times per week in the weekday afternoons, generally between 3:30-5:30pm, and play one or two games per week on Wednesdays and/or Saturdays. The spring season runs 10-weeks from late March to late May, with a varying six-day schedule and Sundays off. There is also a faculty member assigned who will serve as the Ultimate Frisbee assistant coach. This is a new sport program at Middlesex, so the Head Coach will focus on teaching the sport to all levels and developing a sustainable model through a positive experience for all involved.

Ideal candidates will have extensive knowledge of the sport, previous coaching experience, and/or competitive playing experience. The ability to coordinate, communicate, teach the game, and foster a positive and supportive team culture with a focus on player development is essential. They will also be organized, dependable, punctual, strong communicators, and actively maintain a positive environment that is appropriate and safe- physically, psychologically, and emotionally- for all involved.

This is a part-time seasonal position, and a competitive salary will be commensurate to qualifications and experience.
