

2023-2024 Travel dates

The travel dates for the year are listed below. Any requests to deviate from these dates must be approved by the Deans Office. We ask that you adhere to the travel dates and do not schedule early departures from school prior to vacations, holidays, and other School breaks. At certain times international students who are traveling internationally over a School break may return one day early with permission from the Deans Office. We ask that these requests are made at the beginning of the school year, and we ask that we are updated as soon as possible when plans change or arise.
